

Safety and comfort is your responsibility

- Take plenty of water. Drink at least 1 litre per hour and always take more than you think you'll need. Hydrolytes are recommended.
- Avoid extreme heat. In hot weather plan your ride or walk for early morning or evening.
- Be sun-smart. Apply sunscreen regularly and cover up.
- Wear a helmet. Additional safety gear like gloves are also recommended. Armour should be considered on Black Trails.
- Prepare for flies. Consider taking a fly net or fly cream.
- Plan ahead and be prepared. Have a trail map or take a photo of the sign. Carry; tools, spare tubes, pump, first aid kit, extra water and food.
- Know and respect your equipment. Ensure your bike and equipment are suitable for your chosen trails.
- Ride in groups and know your limits, supervising children at all times. If alone, tell someone about your plans. Be aware of hazards and changes to trail conditions.
- Respect wildlife. To minimise disturbance and for your safety, allow animals space and time.
- Carry a mobile phone. Be aware that reception is unreliable and can often improve with higher elevation.
- Motorcycles are not permitted on any trails, within Tjoritja/West MacDonnell National Park or Alice Springs Telegraph Station Historical Reserve.
- Give way to vehicles which may be using management tracks.

In the event of an emergency call 000

Many trail markers display a grid reference which can help locate you.

Please remember

- Comply with all signs, noting if a trail is one or two-way, for shared-use, walkers-only or riders-only.
- Stay on the marked trails for your own safety and to show respect for country and culture. Tread lightly and leave no trace, control your bike and take all rubbish with you.
- Share the trails, respecting other users. Remember, cyclists generally give way to walkers but, common sense should prevail according to the situation.

Look after the trails by setting a good example of environmentally sound and socially responsible trail use.

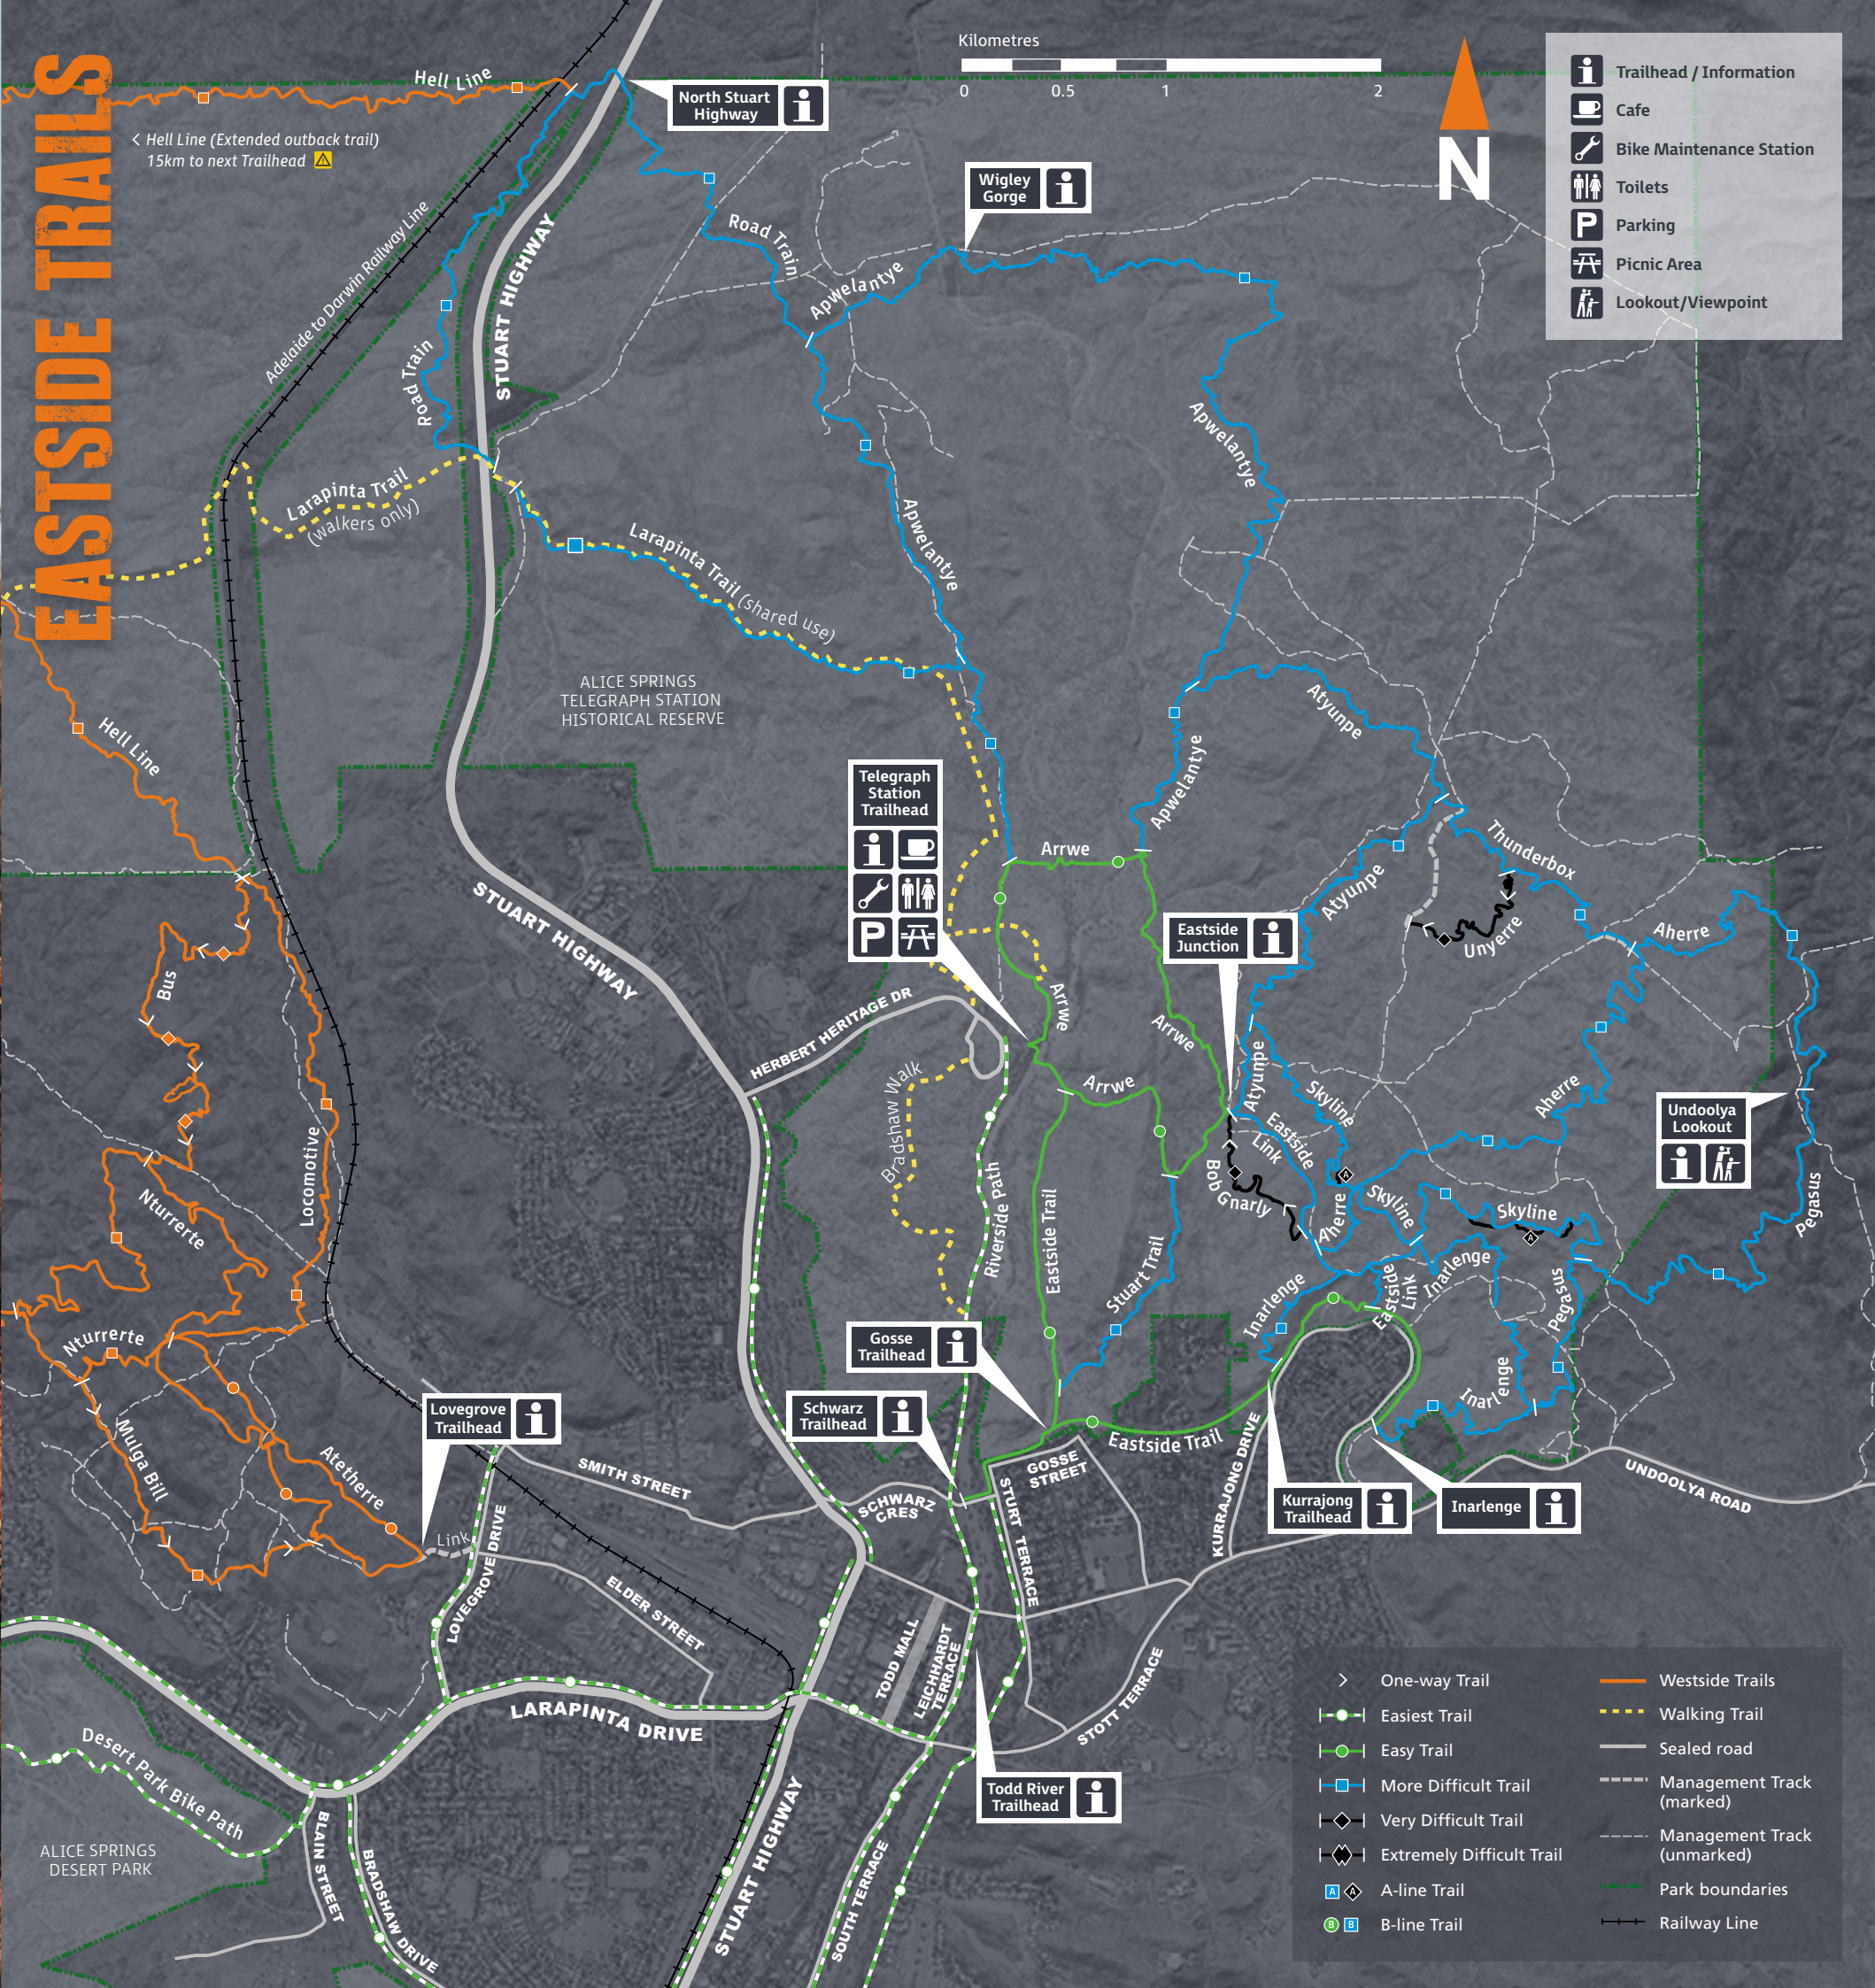

Ride the Red Centre

The Eastside & Westside Trails form part of a large network of mountain bike & shared-use trails across Central Australia.
